GVFHRA 25th Anniversary Gala a Huge Success!

Chartered by SHRM in 1983, GVFHRA celebrated its 25th anniversary with a gala event at Normandy Farms last month. With over 250 attendees, the event recognized the accomplishments, leaders, influences and innovations of the chapter and reaffirmed its dedication to influencing growth and change for the human resource profession.

With Lynn Berry from NBC10 News as emcee, the evening included a cocktail hour networking event with sumptuous hors d'oeuvres and musical entertainment, chapter history & recognitions during dinner, a keynote address by Steve Miranda, Chief Human Resource Officer for SHRM, and comedy magic presented by Terry Parret.

Thank you to all the sponsors and the Gala Committee who made this a wonderful event for all who attended. The photos on pages 4 and 5 provide some highlights of the evening.

GVFHRA Earns Top Award from SHRM

The Society for Human Resource Management in Alexandria, Va. has awarded the Superior Merit Chapter designation to the Greater Valley Forge Human Resource Association for its scope of work in perpetuating and supporting the mission of the organization in 2007.

SHRM serves the needs of HR professionals and advances the interests of the HR profession with more than 225,000 members in more than 130 countries, and more than 575 affiliated chapters.

“This recognition demonstrates both the leadership and the successful partnership the chapter has with SHRM to serve the networking and professional development needs of human resource professionals and to the advancement of the human resources profession” said Pamela J. Green, SPHR, SHRM’s chief membership officer.

The chapter receives a Certificate of Recognition, a specialized banner to display at its meetings and events, and is being recognized in SHRM’s publications and at its conferences.

President's Message

*By Lynne Kester,
Pres., GVFHRA*

As June 30th, and the end of my term as President of GVFHRA nears, I want to take this opportunity to thank the entire membership for the privilege to serve as your SHRM Chapter President for the 2007/2008 term. Serving the chapter was a rewarding experience personally, and I gained new insights into the running of a chapter. It has truly been an honor!

This has been an exciting year, both for me personally, as well as for the chapter. I had the honor of working with a group of talented and dedicated HR professionals who served as board members, committee chairs/co-chairs and committee members. It is because of volunteer members such as them that GVFHRA continues to be an award winning chapter, and a premier SHRM Chapter in the Greater Philadelphia Area. Many thanks to each of them for all of their hard work and effort on behalf of the chapter.

Building on the rich history and tradition of GVFHRA, this term's board and committees have had a busy and successful year. I want to share with you several of the key accomplishments related to the strategic plan:

1. Increase chapter membership. In support of this goal we:
 - a. held an at-large SHRM member cocktail reception and information session about GVFHRA;
 - b) implemented the "Member Get a Member Program, in which current members who refer new members are rewarded through discounted membership renewal and seminar registration fees (for more information, please refer to www.gvfhra.org).
2. Celebrate the achievement of GVFHRA reaching its' 25th year as a professional HR organization with a special 25th Anniversary Celebration Gala. This event was a huge success! We had planned on 150 attendees, hoped for 200, and never dared to dream of the 262 actual attendees who came out to celebrate with us. What an amazing night of networking, highlighting and sharing the rich historical tapestry of our chapter, education and FUN. It was a night to remember.

3. Reenergize the dormant Diversity and Inclusion Council. This was a rebuilding year for the committee, and they have big plans for 2008-2009- including reinstating the Annual Diversity Award Dinner to recognize exceptional diversity leadership in our area, as well as other exciting initiatives. Watch for more information this fall.
4. Created a partnership with Cabrini College's Student SHRM Chapter to support the next generation of HR Leaders in our community. GVFHRA members spoke to the students about careers in HR, and writing effective resumes. This fall GVFHRA will partner with the students to offer 'mock' interviewing workshops.
5. Our goal was to have as many of our programs eligible for HRCI credits as possible, with a majority of them pre-certified for strategic credits. I am proud to say that all but one of our dinner/breakfast meeting programs were certified for HRCI credits. In addition, our Special Interest Groups did a super job of bringing outstanding quality workshops, and achieved record attendance.
6. National SHRM gave us a directive to become more involved at the PA State SHRM Chapter level. GVFHRA was represented by three of our board members at the annual leadership conference, and continues to participate in meetings.
7. Once again, GVFHRA achieved recognition as a Superior Merit Award Chapter of SHRM!

This year saw a change in our Chapter Management Professional role, with the resignation of our long-time Chapter Administrator, Vicki Dycus, and the on-boarding of our new CMP, Lori Stokes-Powers. Lori quickly learned about the details of the day-to-day running of a large chapter, and did it always with a smile and a sense of humor. She was a tremendous asset to me, and I thank her for all of her support.

In a few short days, our President-Elect, Sharon Crandall, will begin her term as your Chapter President for 2008-2009. The board and committees held a strategic planning meeting in early May and many plans are already underway for a fantastic year. I know that each of you will offer Sharon great support in her new leadership role, and I am confident that the 2008-2009 term will be one that shines in the chapter's history. For those of you who may have been thinking about volunteering, but have not been sure how to start- I encourage you to reach out to Sharon, who would love to hear from you.

Greater Valley Forge Human Resources Association is a very special and unique SHRM chapter. I am proud to be a member, and to have had the opportunity to serve as your Chapter President. Thank you again for this very special honor- it is truly a career highlight.

2008 dvHRP Summit is almost here!

The 2008 dvHRP Summit kicks off on Friday, October 3rd at the Philadelphia Marriott. A collaboration between GVFHRA and Philly SHRM, this dynamic one-day event provides a wide array of educational sessions across six professional development tracks featuring local and respected speakers. You'll receive HRCI credits as well as a full day of networking opportunities with your peers.

Last year, over 400 HR professionals packed the seminar rooms and visited the Exhibitors Crossing exposition area where more than 70 exhibiting companies presented their products and services for the HR community. Many companies held raffles throughout the day and winners were announced during the afternoon break. The event received rave reviews from attendees, sponsors and exhibitors alike:

- "I really enjoyed the conference. I thought that every aspect of the event was carefully handled."
- "I attended the above conference on Friday, and the workshops that I attended were OUTSTANDING."
- "The events only get better. Not only were the educational tracks valuable, but the networking opportunities were A+!"

The 2008 Summit promises to be equally successful. The exhibit hall is filling up quickly and many sessions are nearing their maximum room capacity. Don't miss out on this exciting opportunity . . . plan now to attend or exhibit at one of the region's leading conferences for HR professionals! For more details and registration, contact Lori Stokes-Powers at (610) 551-4736 or visit www.dvhrpsummit.com.

Barb Dyson Honored with HR Person of the Year Award

Former GVFHRA committee chair Barb Dyson of Vertex Inc, was awarded the 2008 Delaware Valley HR Person of the Year Award in the 501 to 2,000 employee category. The award is given annually by the HR Association of Southern New Jersey, Chester County Human Resource Association, Delaware SHRM, Greater Valley Forge Human Resource Association, and Tri-State HR Management Association chapters of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM).

Barb was recognized for her work on Vertex's redesigned compensation program, improved benefits program, upgraded employee handbook, and other HR programs, as well as the energetic approach with which she confronts these major projects. She encourages and supports the human resources team while shifting the focus to internal customer service, and is consistent in her philosophy to approach problem solving from a partnership perspective, and to promote knowledge sharing among groups.

"Barb has made significant contributions over the past few years in helping us to transform the Vertex HR entity into a higher performing and more strategic business function," said Jim Krebs, Vice President of Human Resources and Organizational Development for Vertex. "It is very gratifying to see Barb get the recognition from SHRM professionals for her leadership, and for representing Vertex so well in the local HR community."

The Delaware Valley HR Person of the Year Award honors those who exemplify outstanding achievement within the local HR community. The award recognizes creative approaches and consistently superior performance that benefits the individual's organization as well as their business and professional communities.

Congratulations, Barb Dyson!

HR Technology Committee Forming

This year's chapter member assessment survey highlighted many improvements we can make at GVFHRA. They include enhancements to the chapter website and more technology information. As a result, the Greater Valley Forge HR Association is proud to announce the piloting of its first HR Technology Committee. The initial focus of the group will be to partner with the Marketing Committee to enhance the GVFHRA website and build programs and resources for our members related to their HR technology needs.

We are looking for volunteers to join the committee. The best part, you don't need a technology background to get involved! But if you are interested in helping the chapter website evolve, interested in building programs, or just want to use the group as a way to learn about how technology can impact the business of Human Resources, then this will be the group for you.

Please reach out to Alvin Dohl, committee chair via email (alvin.dohl@sap.com) or by phone (610) 661-4109.
